OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR GENERAL'S SECRETARY, CANADA,

OTTAWA, 22nd January, 1915.

SIR,—I have the honour to inform you that His Royal Highness the Governor General will proceed to the Senate Chamber to open the Session of the Dominion Parliament on Thursday, the 4th February, at Three o'clock.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

E. A. STANTON, Lieut.-Colonel,
Governor General's Secretary.

The Honourable,
The Speaker of the Senate.

The Senate was adjourned during pleasure.

His Royal Highness the Governor General, having come and being seated on the Throne,

The Honourable the Speaker commanded the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod to proceed to the House of Commons and acquaint that House,—“It is His Royal Highness the Governor General's pleasure that they attend him immediately in the Senate Chamber.”

Who being come, with their Speaker,

His Royal Highness the Governor General was then pleased to open the Session by the following Speech to both Houses:—

Honourable Gentlemen of the Senate:

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

During the months which have elapsed since the outbreak of war, the people of Canada have given most abundant and convincing evidence of their firm loyalty to our Sovereign and of their profound devotion to the institutions of the British Empire.

Since I last addressed you, a Canadian Expeditionary Force of more than thirty thousand men has been safely despatched across the Atlantic, and after arriving in the British Islands has been engaged in completing the necessary training before proceeding to the Front. Notwithstanding the unusually severe weather conditions which have prevailed in the British Islands, the training has proceeded satisfactorily and it is anticipated that the Force will very shortly take its place in the field of action.

The earnest and resolute spirit of patriotism which animates the whole Dominion has evoked a magnificent response to the call for service beyond the seas. Large additional forces have been organized from which further contingents are ready to be despatched as soon as the necessary arrangements for receiving them and completing their training can be consummated.

Notwithstanding the inevitable disturbance of trade which was created by the outbreak of war on so vast a scale, the financial and business conditions of the Dominion have shown great stability, and on the whole the country has adapted itself to the new conditions in a very effective way.

My advisers will submit for your consideration measures rendered necessary by the participation of this Dominion in the great task which our Empire has undertaken in this war.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

The accounts for the last fiscal year will be laid before you immediately and the estimates for the next fiscal year will be submitted without delay. You will be asked to make the necessary financial provision for effective aid in the conduct of the war.

Honourable Gentlemen of the Senate:Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

The strong unity of purpose which inspires His Majesty's Dominions gives us the firm assurance that the cause for which this war has been undertaken will be maintained to an honourable and successful issue. I commend to your favourable consideration the measures which will be submitted to you for aiding that great purpose, and I pray that the Divine blessing may be vouchsafed to your deliberations.

His Royal Highness the Governor General being pleased to retire, the House of Commons withdrew.

After some time the Senate was resumed.

The same was then read by the Clerk, and it is as follows:—

To the Honourable the Speaker of the Senate:—

The Joint Librarians of Parliament have the honour to report to Parliament for the year 1914, as follows:—

During the short recess, since the August session, there have been few items of consequence to report.

All the available literature, official and otherwise, relating to the war has been collected, and it is hoped that Members will find little on the subject missing from the Library Catalogue or shelves.

Special attention has been paid to the publications relating to International Law and the conduct of business during war.

The purely literary side of the Library has had to be somewhat neglected, in view of the necessarily large purchases of books relating to the war.

There has been indeed a marked diminution in the output of books of general literature in England and France during the year.

Some very valuable donations have been received during the recess. Among them are the following:—

H. J. Elwes, F.R.S., and A. Henry, M.A.

Trees of Great Britain and Ireland. Illustrated Portfolio, 7 volumes. Forwarded to the Library by H.R.H. the Governor General on behalf of the authors. Book of the Dead.

“Facsimiles of Papyrie of Hansfer, Auhai, Kerscher and Netchemet.” Translation, etc., by E. A. Wallis Budge. From the Trustees of the British Museum.

Catalogue of Lamps in the British Museum. By H. B. Walters.

Catalogue of the Cuneiform Tablets in the Konyunjik. Collection of the British Museum. Supplement. By L. W. King.

We have received from France the following documents bearing on the present war:—

Documents diplomatiques;

La grande guerre européenne;

Pièces relatives aux négociations qui ont précédé les hostilités;

Le Livre Jaune Français;

Le Livre Gris Belge;

Le Livre Orange Russe;

Pourquoi nous sommes en guerre;

Le Bulletin de l'Armée;

Communiqués officiels;

Ordres du Jour.

The customary list of donations is attached hereto. Also the list of copyrights as usual.

The annual catalogue of accessions is in print and will be duly distributed.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

A. D. DECELLES,

General Librarian.

MARTIN G. GRIFFIN,

Parliamentary Librarian.

For list of donations to the Library vide Sessional Papers 1915 No. 40.

Ordered, That the same do lie on the Table.

The Honourable the Speaker presented to the Senate the following Report from the Clerk of the Senate:—

CLERK'S OFFICE,

OTTAWA, February 4, 1915.

SIR,

In compliance with Rule 104, of this House, I have the honour to report that upon looking over the record of attendance at the sittings of the Senate by the members thereof, I find that the Honourable James E. Robertson, one of the members for the

The Honourable Mr. Prowse moved, seconded by the Honourable Mr. Cloran, That the following Address be adopted:—

To His Most Excellent Majesty the King:—

We, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Senate of Canada, in Parliament assembled, desire most earnestly in our own name and on behalf of the people whom we represent, to renew the expression of our unswerving loyalty and devotion to the person of our Majesty, and to the person or Government.

We would respectfully represent to Your Majesty that at a general election in Prince Edward Island held in the year 1873 A.D., upon the question of the entry of that Island into the Dominion of Canada it was clearly understood that the Island should for all time have a representation of not less than six members in the House of Commons of Canada.

And that the electors of the Island at that election voted in favour of becoming a Province of this Dominion on the clear and distinct understanding that the new Province should for all time, be so represented by not less than six members in the House of Commons.

And That in drafting the terms upon which Prince Edward Island should become part of this Dominion, the proviso with regard to a permanent representation of not less than six members in the House of Commons was through inadvertence or mistake omitted to be inserted.

And That by reason of such omission the Province of Prince Edward Island has from time to time been reduced in her representation in the House of Commons, until now her representation therein has been reduced by half.

We would respectfully request Your Majesty to be graciously pleased to give Your consent to submitting a measure to the Parliament of the United Kingdom to amend certain provisions of the British North America Act, 1867, and any Act amending the same or any Order-in-Council or terms or conditions of union made or approved under the said Acts or any Acts of the Parliament of Canada, in such a manner that the Province of Prince Edward Island shall, in accordance with the understanding upon which that Province agreed to become a part of the Dominion of Canada, be henceforth represented in the House of Commons of Canada by not less than six members, being two from each County of said Province.

All of which we humbly pray Your Majesty to take into your favourable and gracious consideration.

The Honourable Mr. Power, from the Standing Committee on Internal Economy and Contingent Accounts, presented their Sixth Report.

The same was then read by the Clerk, as follows:—

THE SENATE,

COMMITTEE ROOM No. 8,

MONDAY, March 29, 1915.

The Standing Committee on Internal Economy and Contingent Accounts have the honour to make their Sixth Report, as follows:—

Your Committee have inquired into the composition and duties of the staff of The Senate and its efficiency. This inquiry was due to the fact that while the number of Members of the House has been very slightly increased during the past twenty years and while the efficiency of the staff has not been improved, the expenditure for contingencies, and that for the payment of the staff have increased very materially.

Your Committee have devoted not a little time and thought to the several matters herein referred to, and they agree upon the following recommendations:—

1. That Mr. A. R. Soutter be superannuated. Mr. Soutter has been in the employ of the Senate since the first of November, 1874, and during the forty years that have passed since then has rendered valuable services; but your Committee have been satisfied that, at the present time, the action they recommend will be in the public interest.

2. That Mr. C. H. Jones succeed Mr. Soutter as Clerk of Minutes.
 3. That Mr. Arthur R. F. Ralph, Curator of the Reading Room, be superannuated. Mr. Ralph has been incapacitated for work for some time.
 4. That Mr. Joseph Larose, Doorkeeper of The Senate, be superannuated. Mr. Larose has been in the employ of the Upper House since 1865, and has during all the intervening years been a faithful and efficient public servant. Advancing age and failing health have induced Mr. Larose to ask to be placed on the superannuation list.
 5. That the services of Mr. Adolphe D. Caron be dispensed with.
 6. That Mr. Byron Nicholson discharge the duties of Curator of the Reading Room in addition to those of his present office, Clerk of English Journals. Mr. Nicholson is a gentleman of considerable literary skill and experience and his appointment will supply a want in the management of the Reading Room.
 7. That Mr. Siméon Lelièvre, Second Clerk Assistant, act as Clerk of Petitions and Clerk to the Committee on Standing Orders.
 8. That His Honour the Speaker be requested to nominate Mr. Charles H. Larose to the position of Doorkeeper of the Senate at a salary of one thousand dollars a year. Mr. Larose has been in the service of the Senate for nearly nine years, and his conduct in his present capacity has been above reproach.
 9. That Miss K. C. O'Brien be appointed a Junior Clerk for general purposes.
 10. That no further appointments of Charwomen be made until the number of those known as permanent has been reduced to seven, and that the number of such permanent employees shall not thereafter exceed eight.
 11. That a register of attendance of the employees of the Senate, similar to those kept in the various Departments, be instituted and maintained.
 12. That any employee absent from duty for three days on the ground of illness shall produce a certificate of such illness from one of the civil service physicians.
 13. That during the intervals between Sessions the Speaker's Steward and Messenger, and the Keeper of the Wardrobe may be called up to do duty as Senate Messengers.
 14. That the number of Pages hereafter shall not exceed four.
 15. That all articles of furniture and furnishings be obtained by requisition on the Public Works Department who exercise supervision as to price and quality. This maintains a uniformity throughout the service. Nothing of this class should be made a charge on the Senate contingencies or procured in any other way than through the Public Works Department. That Department claims control and ownership of all these articles.
 16. That all supplies of stationery, and this includes typewriters, etc., be obtained through the Government Stationery Office who supervise and control prices and quality. These the Senate pay for and own and they are a charge on the Senate contingencies.
 17. That all payments made out of Senate contingencies be vouched for. A voucher should bear on its face evidence that the expenditure has been authorized by competent authority, and evidence that the articles have been received or the services have been performed (as the case may be) and that the prices paid, if not covered by contract, are fair and just. These requisites are necessary to comply with section 45 of the Consolidated Revenue and Audit Act.
 18. That the Clerk of the Senate be the chief executive officer of the Senate.
- All of which is respectfully submitted.

L. G. POWER,
Chairman.

Ordered, That the said Report be placed on the Orders of the Day for consideration at the second sitting to-morrow.

The House, according to Order, resumed the adjourned debate on the motion of the Honourable Mr. David, seconded by the Honourable Mr. McHugh:—

That this House, without derogating from the principle of Provincial autonomy, etc. (Vide p. 59); the motion of the Honourable Mr. Bolduc, in amendment thereto, seconded by the Honourable Mr. Pope:—

That all the words after the word "autonomy" be struck out and the following be substituted in lieu thereof: "or suggesting in what manner any Province should exercise its powers in matters of education," etc. (Vide p. 115); and the motion of the Honourable Mr. Power, in amendment to the amendment, seconded by the Honourable Mr. Derbyshire:—

That all the words after the words "this House" be struck out and the following be substituted in lieu thereof: "while it believes it is in the interest of the Dominion, etc." (Vide p. 125).

After debate,

A point of Order was raised by the Honourable Mr. Edwards, to the effect that the amendment to the amendment is out of order, inasmuch as it does not amend but simply ignores the amendment altogether.

His Honour The Speaker declared the point of order well taken, giving the following as his reasons therefor:—

In order that the decision, which I am called upon to give, may be better understood, I am obliged to condense in a few words the tenor of the motions now before the House, so that the end which is sought to be attained by each of them may more readily be grasped.

The main motion, the one moved by the Honourable Senator for Mille Îles, asks this House to declare that it is within the limits of its jurisdiction or of its powers to express its regrets on the divisions which seem to exist in the Province of Ontario in connection with bilingual schools, with the hope that these difficulties may be settled in peace and harmony and in accordance with the spirit of the Constitution.

The motion in amendment, the one moved by the Honourable Senator for Lauzon, asserts that this House, without suggesting to any Province what rights it possesses in matters of education, believes it is its duty to express the wish that all difficulties in connection with bilingual schools or other national or religious questions be settled in peace and harmony and in accordance with the letter and spirit of the Constitution.

The difference between these two motions is that the latter does not assert the jurisdiction of the Senate, nor its powers in school questions, and does not point out the Province of Ontario as being the seat of bilingual difficulties.

In short, the motion of the Honourable Senator for Lauzon is a more expanded declaration, aiming at no particular province, and in which great care is taken not to assert what may be the powers and the jurisdiction of the Canadian Parliament in that connection.

Let us see now what is sought by the motion of the Honourable Senator for Halifax.

Taking the conclusions of the main motion and those of the motion in amendment, it presents them as the preamble to the expression of opinion which is sought from this House, and this opinion is that The British North America Act, having committed questions of education to the provinces—whatever opinion may be held in the Canadian Parliament—it would be contrary to the spirit of the Constitution and calculated to intensify any division of feeling that now exists.

Having established the nature and the range of the motions now before the House, the question arises whether the sub-amendment is in order.

Firstly, in what does it amend the amendment?

It does not amend the amendment in this sense, that, similarly to the amendment, it asserts the necessity for this House to declare that any school difficulty be settled in peace and harmony and in accordance with the Constitution. All this portion of the sub-amendment, being a repetition of what is already included in the amendment, cannot be considered as an amendment.

There is one point, however, where the sub-amendment differs entirely from the amendment. It is where it asks the House to assert:—

1. That The British North America Act has committed to the provinces alone the settlement of difficulties in school matters;

2. That any suggestion of the Senate, even if within the limits of the powers committed to the provinces, would be contrary to the Constitution and calculated to create still deeper divisions.

Thus double assertion is contrary to the letter and spirit of the Constitution and contradicts the principles set down in the first part of the sub-amendment.

It also contradicts, in the most striking manner, the conclusion of the amendment which, in order to obtain a settlement in peace and harmony, precisely invokes the spirit and the letter of the Constitution.

For that very reason, the sub-amendment becomes an expanded negative.

Parliamentary jurisprudence is explicit on this point.

May (page 293) in his classical work on Parliamentary usages, thus expresses himself:—

“The Speaker has also ruled that an amendment that was merely an expanded negative or otherwise irregular in form, could not be proposed from the Chair.”

In Peel's Decisions, we read on page 9:—

“A mere negative cannot be moved as an amendment. A proposed amendment which is merely an expanded negative in another form, is not in order.”

In Denison and Brand's Decisions, we find, on page 9, the following doctrine:—

“Amendments in the nature of substantive resolution and not of amendment to the resolution before the House, cannot be put.”

The motion of the Honourable Senator for Halifax, not amending anything, simply becomes what is called a motion intended to be substituted to a regular amendment, that is to say, a Parliamentary tactics to deny to this House the obligation of pronouncing itself on a question that has been regularly submitted to it. It is in reality a substantive motion, in no way an amendment, and consequently cannot regularly be moved.

For all these reasons, and under the authority of Parliamentary jurisprudence, I declare the sub-amendment moved by the Honourable Senator for Halifax, to be of the nature of a substantive motion and that consequently it cannot be moved.

It is not an amendment, but a mere substitution which is proposed. This substitution is not in order because it is a substitution and is preceded by a preamble, and finally because it merely seeks to negative what is asserted in the amendment.

Its very nature excludes it from permissible amendments.

The Honourable Mr. Power appealed from the Ruling of His Honour the Speaker:—

That the said Ruling be not accepted by the Senate.

The question of concurrence being put on Mr. Speaker's ruling.

The House divided, and the names being called for, they were taken down as follow:—

The Honourable,

SIR,—Please pardon me in asking a favour and your influence in getting my years of service extended, which is sometimes done where illness and incapacity causes early superannuation.

My appointment dates 1889, but before that time I was employed as butler to the late Honourable W. Miller when that gentleman was Speaker of the Senate. I was then engaged by Mr. Boquet, Caterer, of Montreal.

If you will oblige me in this request, I shall feel ever grateful.

And remain, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

PRAYERS.

The Honourable Mr. Power, from the Standing Committee on Internal Economy and Contingent Accounts, presented their Sixth Report (as reconsidered).

THE SENATE,

COMMITTEE ROOM No. 8,

TUESDAY, April 6, 1915.

The Standing Committee on Internal Economy and Contingent Accounts have the honour to report that they have reconsidered their Sixth Report, and after hearing the suggestions made to your Committee by His Honour The Speaker, beg to submit the following as their Sixth Report:—

Your Committee have inquired into the composition and duties of the Staff of the Senate and its efficiency.

Your Committee have devoted not a little time and thought to the several matters herein referred to, and they agree upon the following recommendations:—

1. That Mr. A. R. Soutter, Clerk of Minutes, be superannuated, said superannuation to take effect from the first of June next.
2. That Mr. C. H. Jones succeed Mr. Soutter as Clerk of Minutes.
3. That Mr. Arthur R. F. Ralph, Curator of the Reading Room, be superannuated.
4. That Mr. Joseph Larose, Doorkeeper of the Senate, be superannuated. Mr. Larose has been in the employ of the Upper House since 1865, and has during all the intervening years been a faithful and efficient public servant. Advancing age and failing health have induced Mr. Larose to ask to be placed on the superannuation list.
5. That Mr. Byron Nicholson discharge the duties of Curator of the Reading Room in addition to those of his present office, Clerk of English Journals.
6. That Mr. Simeon Lelievre, Second Clerk Assistant, act as Clerk of Petitions and Clerk to the Committee on Standing Orders.

7. That His Honour the Speaker be requested to nominate Mr. A. L. Garneau, Clerk of French Journals, for promotion to Sub-Division A of the Second Division.

8. Also to nominate Miss K. C. O'Brien to the position of Junior Clerk for purposes of shorthand and typewriting, in Sub-Division A of the Third Division.

9. And also to nominate Mr. Charles H. Larose to the position of Doorkeeper of the Senate, in Sub-Division A, of the Third Division.

10. That no further appointments of Charwomen be made until the number of those known as permanent has been reduced to seven, and that the number of such permanent employees shall not thereafter exceed eight.

11. That a register of attendance of the employees of the Senate, similar to those kept in the various Departments, be instituted and maintained.

12. That an employee absent from duty for three days on the ground of illness, shall produce a certificate of such illness from one of the Civil Service physicians.

13. That during the intervals between Sessions the Doorkeeper, the Speaker's Steward and Messenger, and the Keeper of the Wardrobe may be called upon to do duty as Senate Messengers.

14. That the number of Pages hereafter shall not exceed four.

15. That all articles of furniture and furnishings be obtained by requisition on the Public Works Department, who exercise supervision as to price and quality. This maintains a uniformity throughout the service. Nothing of this class should be made a charge on the Senate contingencies or procured in any other way than through the Public Works Department. That Department claims control and ownership of all these articles.

16. That all supplies of stationery, and this includes typewriters etc., be obtained through the Government Stationery Office who supervise and control prices and quality. These the Senate pay for and own and they are a charge on the Senate contingencies.

17. That all payments made out of Senate contingencies be vouched for. A voucher should bear on its face evidence that the expenditure has been authorized by competent authority, and evidence that the articles have been received or the services have been performed (as the case may be) and that the prices paid, if not covered by contract, are fair and just. These requisites are necessary to comply with section 45 of the Consolidated Revenue and Audit Act.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

L. G. POWER,

Chairman.

The question being again put upon the main motion, as amended,

The Honourable Mr. Béique, in amendment moved, seconded by the Honourable Mr. David:—

That the twelfth clause be amended by striking out the words "from one of the Civil Service" and substituting therefor the words "from a duly qualified".

Which was ordered accordingly.

Before putting the main motion that the said Report, as amended, be adopted,

His Honour the Speaker ruled that the said Report was out of Order, giving the following as his reasons:—

THE SENATE,

OTTAWA, April 8, 1915.

It is my painful duty to denounce once more the last attempt of the Committee of Internal Economy to encroach on my rights and to substitute itself to the law in the administration of the Senate.

On Wednesday the 3rd day of March, 1915, the Honourable Mr. Power moved, seconded by the Honourable Mr. Taylor:—

That the Committee on Internal Economy and Contingent Accounts have power, without special reference from the House to consider any matter affecting the Internal Economy of the Senate, as to which His Honour the Speaker is not called upon to act by The Civil Service Amendment Act, 1908, and such Committee shall report the result of such consideration to the House for action.

The question of concurrence being put thereon, the same was resolved in the affirmative, and Ordered accordingly.

By this resolution all that pertained to His Honour the Speaker was deliberately set aside, and placed out of the reach of the Committee.

The Committee has consequently never been entitled to make the report which it tries to-day to impose upon this House.

This report is entirely against the letter and the spirit of that resolution of the 3rd of March last, and it is, as Speaker of this House, my bounden duty to call your attention to this attempt to set aside the most formal instructions given to that Committee.

This Sixth report of the Committee deals with the positions and duties of the Staff of the Senate, recommends a certain number of dismissals, and points the name of the persons who are to fill up the vacancies, instructs the Speaker to appoint certain persons to certain positions, and in a general way indicates to the Speaker what are the duties which the Committee expect him to perform, so that he may not be ignorant of them. It advises him that, in the future, no appointments are to be made of charwomen until the number has been reduced to seven, that the number of pages should not exceed four, that during the intervals between Sessions, the Speaker's steward and messenger be called upon to do duty as Senate messengers, etc., etc.

In 1908, the Parliament of Canada placed on the Statute book legislation which decides undeniably and with supreme authority the question which is to-day pronounced upon by the Committee of Internal Economy.

This legislation, Chapter 15, 7-8 Edward VII, in dealing with the organization of Departments, and with subsequent alterations which may be made thereto, assigns—formally and without any possible error—to the Minister in charge of a Department, and to the Speaker of the Senate—in so far as the Senate is concerned—the work of organization and reorganization of the Staff under his control.

“The Head of each Department,” says section 8 of the above cited Act, “shall cause the organization of his Department to be determined and defined by Order in Council.”

This organization, once it is determined on the initiative of the Head of a Department, and confirmed by Order in Council, remains intangible, until another Order in Council, obtained in the same manner, brings into operation, in this first organization, the alterations necessitated by the exigencies of the service. This is what is enacted by the Statute, in the 3rd paragraph, of said section 8, when it adds:

“After being so determined and defined, the organization of a Department shall not be changed, except by Order in Council.”

It must be borne in mind that it is the Head of the Department who, alone in the eyes of the law, has the power to put the machinery in motion: “The Head of each Department shall cause the organization of his Department to be determined and defined by Order in Council.”

And besides, all appointments,—those provided for in sections 21, 22 and 23 of The Civil Service Act, 1908, as well as promotions permissible under section 24,— are made on the report of the Deputy Head of each Department, concurred in by the Head thereof and approved by Order in Council.

That is the real economy of The Civil Service Act.

Needless to add that the Act, in this connection, assimilates the Speakers of both Houses.—(Sec. 2, sub-sec. c) to the Heads of Departments, and the decisions of both Houses, to Orders in Council (sec. 45).

Notwithstanding the enactments of a Statute, adopted by this House on its own behalf, the Committee of Internal Economy takes upon itself to ignore the prerogatives of the Speaker of the Senate who, in this instance, has all the powers of the Head of a Department.

To the recommendation of the Speaker, the recommendation of the Committee is substituted, and the Committee, contrary to law, usurps the right to organize the Staff of this House, and to suggest to the latter the promotions to be made. What becomes then—and I mention but this last case—of the section in the Statute which enacts:

“24. Promotions, other than from the Third to the Second Division, shall be made for merit by the Governor in Council (i.e. the Senate) upon the recommendation of the Head of the Department (i.e. the Speaker) based upon the report in writing of the Deputy Head.”

An attempt was made last year to amend the law, and a Bill sprung up from this Chamber. The Senate tried to recover the standing it had voluntarily sacrificed in accepting the law of 1908. But such an attempt was fruitless and Parliament did not move in the matter.

As long as the present law shall determine the organization and reorganization of the Staff of the Senate, as well as the promotion of certain employees—as long as it has not been amended in the sense desired by the Committee—I shall uphold the prerogative granted to me by the Senate, of recommending myself, at the exclusion of anybody else, the proposed appointment or promotion—and any suggestion in that line, if it is lacking this necessary condition of the Presidential recommendation, cannot, after all, but be declared illegal.

What is illegal cannot be in order.

I therefore declare out of order all that part of the report of the Committee of Contingent Accounts, which relates to the reorganization of the Staff and the promotion of certain of its employees.

My decision can be appealed from and reversed.

What then?

A conflict will have been created, a regrettable conflict, more regrettable for the Senate than for myself; for, having no intention whatever of disarming, when I am perfectly sure of being in accord with the law, I shall continue to invoke the law—as well as the manner of interpreting it, by the persons themselves who have the charge of enforcing it, and from whom the following letters will show what should or should not be done under the circumstances.

In answer to questions put to him in a letter dated 6th December, 1912—the text of which can be found in the Journals of the Senate of the 23rd January, 1913—the following is what the Deputy Minister of Justice said, respecting my contention that the appointment of certain employees of the Senate should be preceded by the recommendation of the Speaker.

“This would appear to be the prescribed method of appointment, having regard to sections 2, 3 (sub. sec. 2) 22 and 45, of The Civil Service Amendment Act, 1908. The recommendation of the Speaker appears to be a condition to the making of any such appointment.

E. L. NEWCOMBE,

Dep. Minister of Justice.”

The Auditor General is not less explicit, and if I cite his opinion, it is not so much to show that it is in accordance with my own, than to establish that, if the Senate wishes to place itself above the law, the intervention of the Auditor General may be exercised in a manner disastrous to the employees which the Senate may have appointed, ignoring the provisions of the Statute.

The Auditor General states in fact, what his duty would be under such circumstances:—

"In answer to the third paragraph of your letter, I beg to state that I do not see how the Clerk of the House, the Chairman or Secretary of any Committee or even the Senate, could proceed to make an appointment without having their action preceded by your recommendation, based upon the report in writing of the Clerk of the Senate.

With reference to the last paragraph, I cannot conceive such a thing as the Senate ignoring the law which they assisted in enacting, but should such a thing occur, it would be the duty of the Clerk to decline to issue a cheque for the payment of the salary, and the duty of the Auditor General to refuse to allow such payment to be made.

J. FRASER,

Auditor General."

This House, in accepting the Civil Service Amendment Act, 1908, and in contributing to make it the law of the land, has deliberately consented to the abandonment and sacrifice of the privileges of the past, and it does not possess any longer—either for its Committee or for itself—the right of substituting its recommendation to that of the Speaker, nor the right of making any appointment which has not been previously recommended by the Speaker.

Should it go beyond that, it commits an illegal act, and clashes into the impassable barrier set up by the Auditor General.

I certainly cannot become an accomplice to such an infraction, and, considering it is my imperative duty to ensure to the law its undeniable supremacy over any rule, resolution or report of the Senate or of its Committees,—I declare out of order that part of the report of the Committee of Internal Economy and Contingent Accounts of the Senate relating to the reorganization of the Staff of this House and to the promotion of any of its employees.

The Honourable Mr. Power appealed from the Ruling of His Honour the Speaker and asked that the said Ruling be not accepted by the Senate.

The question was put, Shall the Ruling of the Speaker be sustained?

The House divided, and the names being called for, they were taken down as follow:—

The Honourable Mr. Power, from the Committee appointed to consider the Orders and Customs of the Senate and the Privileges of Parliament, presented the following Report:—

The same was then read by the Clerk, as follows:—

COMMITTEE ON ORDERS AND CUSTOMS OF THE SENATE AND PRIVILEGES OF PARLIAMENT.

SENATE CHAMBER.

APRIL 13, 1915.

The Committee on Orders and Customs of the Senate and Privileges of Parliament, to whom was referred the Report of the Clerk relative to the absence of the Honourable James E. Robertson and the Honourable W. J. Macdonald during two consecutive Sessions of Parliament, have the honour to present the following as their Report thereon:—

Your Committee find that the Report of the Clerk on the failure of the Honourable James E. Robertson and W. J. Macdonald to attend in their places in the Senate during two consecutive Sessions of Parliament is correct.

That, in accordance with instructions from your Committee, the Clerk addressed a communication to the Honourable James E. Robertson and the Honourable W. J. Macdonald.

That no reason has been given by the Honourable James E. Robertson and the Honourable W. J. Macdonald why their seats should not be declared vacant.

That after due consideration of the facts in the case, your Committee have come to the following conclusion, to wit:

That by reason of having failed to give their attendance in the Senate for two consecutive Sessions of Parliament, the places of the Honourable James E. Robertson and of the Honourable W. J. PRAYERS.

His Honour the Speaker presented to the Senate the following Report from the Clerk of the Senate:—

CLERK'S OFFICE,

OTTAWA, April 6, 1915.

SIR,—At the request of several Members of the Senate, who had been complaining that there was no proper attendant in the bath rooms to wait upon those who desire to take the baths, a skilled attendant has been permitted to ply his avocation on trial for some days past, and who appears to have given entire satisfaction.

I am now requested by those Members to report upon the matter and to suggest that this man, whose name is A. O. Carlson, owing to his aptitude for that special work, be appointed messenger and keeper of the bath rooms, at the maximum salary paid to messengers; his appointment to fill the vacancy created by Charles Larose, who has been appointed Doorkeeper of the Senate.

As this appointment will relieve the man in the tonsorial room from attending to the bath rooms, I would suggest that the conditions of his engagement be modified accordingly, and that a schedule of his charges for tonsorial work, which are considered by many too excessive, be looked into and permanently fixed.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

SAM'L E. ST. O. CHAPLEAU,

Clerk of the Senate.

At least eight days notice in writing of the date and place when the vote of said volunteers will be taken shall be given to said scrutineers by the Regimental Officers who will collect the votes, as aforesaid, such notice to be addressed to such scrutineers in the care of the Secretary of the High Commissioner for Canada in London if the Regimental Officers are in Great Britain and to the care of the Canadian Commissioner in Paris if said Regimental Officers are in France, Belgium or Germany."

Clause B.

The Honourable the Speaker presented to the Senate the following statement:—

In resuming my seat, I would like to give only one word of explanation for my recent absence.

I shall not refer to the past only to say that, though I attach very little importance to the fact that my two last decisions have been reversed, I confess that I felt deeply the defection of Conservative friends which has been manifested by the hostile vote of some of them and by the abstention of some others. That reason alone prompted me to decline to preside over a House which failed to give me the expected support.

Now that all the contentious matters have been settled, without any participation of mine, I feel it my duty to take part in the closing of Parliament, and to be at my post at this last call of the Crown.

I do so all the more willingly because I have received the best assurances that my last decisions were strictly in conformity with the law, and that action will be taken which will ensure the full recognition of my rights as Speaker of this House.

The Honourable Mr. Lougheed, presented to the Senate,—A Return to an Address of the Senate, dated 18th March, 1915, for:—

1. A Return showing all appointments to the Customs in that area contained in the present constituencies of Medicine Hat and Macleod, giving names, date of appointment, how appointed and salaries, from the year 1896 to the present date.

2. Also all vacancies by death, resignation or dismissal, giving name, date, length of service and cause of dismissal in the same area and during the same period.

Ordered, That the same do lie on the Table, and it is as follows:—

Vide Sessional Papers 1915, No. 296.

Also Return to an Address to His Royal Highness the Governor General; praying that His Royal Highness will cause to be laid before the Senate, copies of all letters between the Minister of Marine and Fisheries or his Department and the Fishery Overseer at Baker Lake, in the Province of New Brunswick; and also copies of all claims made by the said Fishery Overseer and the payments made thereon.

Ordered, That the same do lie on the Table, and it is as follows:—

Vide Sessional Papers 1915, No. 297.

The Senate was adjourned during pleasure.

After some time the Senate was resumed.

A Message was brought from the House of Commons in the following words:—

HOUSE OF COMMONS,

THURSDAY, 15th April, 1915.

Resolved, That a Message be sent to the Senate to inform their Honours that this House doth not concur in the amendments made by their Honours to Bill No. 111, "An Act to enable Canadian Soldiers on Active Military Service during the present war to exercise their electoral franchise," and that this House doth propose in lieu thereof that the said Bill be amended by adding to Subsection 2 of Section 2 the following:—

"There shall be appointed by the Governor in Council six scrutineers, three to be so appointed upon the nomination of the Prime Minister and three upon the nomination of the leader of the Opposition, such appointments to be made within ten days of such nominations respectively. One of each nomination may be present at the distribution of ballot papers and envelopes, the making of affidavits, the marking of ballots, the closing of envelopes and the posting of the same, and may exercise all the rights which may, under The Dominion Elections Act, be exercised by candidates or their representatives at any poll. The actual travelling and living expenses of such scrutineers at a rate to be fixed by the Governor in Council, may be paid out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund, and they shall be afforded facilities for the performance of their duties. The said scrutineers may name such number of deputies as they may deem necessary and said deputies shall have and be entitled to exercise the powers herein above conferred on said scrutineers.

That in Subsection 2 of Section 2 the following words be inserted after the word "votes" in line 10 of the second page, "and shall give in addition to the general notice a special notice to any person whose appointment as a deputy scrutineer under the provisions hereinafter made has been notified to him and shall permit any scrutineer or deputy scrutineer so named to be present at said proceedings on behalf of either party and in the absence of any such scrutineer or deputy scrutineer."

And by adding immediately after Section 3, the following:—

"(3a) Sections 2 and 3 of this Act shall not come into force until a proclamation by His Majesty in Council declaring them to be in force, shall be published in The Canada Gazette."

Ordered, That the Clerk do carry the said Message to the Senate.

Attest.

THOS. B. FLINT,

Clerk of the Commons.

The Honourable Mr. Lougheed moved, seconded by the Honourable Sir Mackenzie Bowell,

That the Senate do not insist upon their amendments to the said Bill to which the Commons have disagreed, but that the amendments substituted therefor by the House of Commons be adopted, and that a Message be sent to the House of Commons accordingly.

Which was agreed to and ordered accordingly.

The Senate adjourned during pleasure.

After which His Royal Highness the Governor General was pleased to close the Fifth Session of the Twelfth Parliament of the Dominion of Canada, with the following Speech:—

Honourable Gentlemen of the Senate:

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

In relieving you for the present from your arduous duties I desire to thank you for the diligence and zeal with which you have discharged them, and especially for the timely and effective measures which you have taken for necessary co-operation with the United Kingdom and the other Dominions of His Majesty in the tremendous war which has been forced upon our Empire. It is my earnest prayer and my firm hope that the aid thus promptly and generously given will contribute, in no small measure, to that complete and unmistakeable success of the allied arms which alone can bring about an honourable and lasting peace.

As this great struggle proceeds there is no abatement in the intense earnestness and determination of the Canadian people to unite their efforts with those of all the British Dominions for the maintenance of our Empire's integrity and for the preservation of its institutions and liberties. From the Atlantic to the Pacific the splendid response to the call for men has fully equalled all anticipations.

In common with all the people of this Dominion, I have been proud to learn that the Canadian soldiers have shown conspicuous bravery and efficiency in the field of battle, and that they have borne themselves worthily when fighting side by side with the best troops of the Empire.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

In his Majesty's name, I thank you for the liberal provision you have made for carrying on the affairs of the country and for meeting the necessities of the war under the trying conditions which it has brought about.

Honourable Gentlemen of the Senate:

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

I bid you now farewell, in the earnest hope that the terrible conflict in which the Empire is engaged may be brought to a speedy and favourable conclusion, and in the firm belief that our country under the blessing of Divine Providence, will then resume unchecked that career of marked progress and abundant prosperity which it is destined to enjoy.

THE SPEAKER of the Senate then said :

It is His Royal Highness the Governor General's will and pleasure that this Parliament be prorogued until Tuesday, the 25th day of May next, to be here holden, and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued until Tuesday, the 25th day of May next.
